

English Service

Thank you for your recent letter. We appreciated you taking the time to write and we hope this will be the start of many years of contact.

HCJB, the Voice of the Andes, is a Christian radio station committed to communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ. Founded in 1931, it is the world's oldest missionary broadcaster.

We broadcast to most parts of the world in 15 major trade languages. Several languages are aired simultaneously around the clock. Our studios are in Quito, the capital of Ecuador, while our numerous transmitters and antennas are located in Pifo, about 24 km east of the city.

Our desire is to provide good-quality, enjoyable listening with a wide range of programming, from cultural and current affairs programs to programs focusing on DXing and Ecuadorian music. Within all our programs we seek to share the message of hope and salvation that is available through Jesus Christ. You may not agree with all that we say, but we do encourage you to at least think through the messages. Whether you agree or not, we always welcome your comments. And if we can ever help you by providing counsel or suggestions in any area of life, please feel free to write.

In addition to our broadcasts, we offer a different QSL series each year, with six different cards in each series. Our QSLs always reflect themes of Ecuador or HCJB and we invite you to collect them all. We also run a listeners' club, ANDEX International, which you are welcome to join. Information on that is enclosed.

Thanks again for writing to us. We hope you'll continue listening our way and we look forward to hearing from you again soon.

Yours sincerely, HCJB ENGLISH SERVICE

John Adams Director
